

A Trip to the Zoo

Create a madcap adventure with your BBFs!

FILL IN THE MAD LIB FOR LOTS OF LAUGHS!

Try this with a friend:

- You ask your friend for words (example: a noun or a verb).
- Your friend supplies words—without looking at the story.
- You write in the words, then read the story aloud!

One _____ Saturday, the SF Style Club friends decided to visit the zoo.

(adjective)

Olivia wanted to see the _____ first because there was a baby in the exhibit.

(type of animal)

She took tons of photos for her scrapbook on _____.

(noun)

Emma and Abby next wanted to look at the _____.

(type of animal)

orangutans _____ in their cage.

(verb ending in "ing")

After seeing the monkeys eat, Maria and Madison got hungry and decided they wanted to eat

_____.

(type of food)

_____.

(place)

It was a really _____ day, so the girls all had on _____.

(adjective)

(type of clothing)

brought their _____ in case it started to _____.

(type of accessory)

(verb)

Everyone was excited to see the _____ exhibit. They had read all about it in the _____.

(noun)

(publication)

"This was _____!" Olivia said. "I can't wait until we come back with our _____ next weekend!"

(adjective)

(noun)

I can't wait to visit the pandas!

Need help?

A noun is a person, place or object, such as celebrity, Paris or cell phone.

A verb is an action word, such as walk, jump or throw.

An adjective is a word that describes something, such as aquamarine, sophisticated, cool or adorable.

